INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

A ONE DAY SEMINAR PROGRAMME

ON

CHANGING DIMENSIONS OF PATENT LAWS IN INDIA

DATE: 07.02.2019

THE OBJECTIVE OF SEMINAR

1. Its objective was to encourage inventions of new and useful manufactures and to induce inventors to disclose secrets of their inventions.
2. This Act patented any product for the tenure of 14 years.
3. It was then replaced by the Act IX of 1857, having the British crown's approval.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Patents are one of the most important things when it comes to new inventions and innovations, they are claims of a product or process for 20 years for its sole manufacturing or monopoly given to the inventor for safeguarding his invention and earning revenue.

ABOUT INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS CELL

It is necessary to protect the Intellectual property in order to enable organizations to earn recognition or financial benefits. Governments of various countries protect the innovative ideas of the inventors through Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). The rationale for this IPR lies in the need to create awareness about the importance of IPRs as a marketable financial asset and economic tool among the researchers, faculty and students of the College. Intellectual property Rights: means the rights derived from the IP e.g. Patents, registered designs, copyright etc.
